First Friday Art Walk in Downtown Springfield

Did you know that Springfield downtown holds Art Walk on the first Friday of every month? If not, this coming Friday (3/6) will be a good chance to check it out. It's even better after midterm.

The first Friday of each month brings hundreds of people to downtown Springfield for the First Friday Art Walk. Art lovers "Walk the Walk," enjoying original art, music, demonstrations, and performances in 25 gallery venues.

As usual, the March First Friday Art Walk will be held 6-10 p.m. Live art demonstrations, hands-on activities, shows by emerging, local and international artists, plus live music, food and fun make downtown Springfield the place to be in March. Among the highlights of the March 6 Art Walk:

- Henk Pander: Steel and Bones at the MSU Art & Design Gallery features the work of Dutch-born painter Henk Pander. Often skewed and rendered with graphic-novel directness, Pander's mesmerizing, un-idealized depictions of post-industrial decay, emergency response situations and military aftermath resound with the psychological effects of lost purpose, rough tragedy, and unredeemed violence, and suggest the awesome philosophical enormity of history and time.

"Red Wheel" by Henk Pander

- Artist Kristi Mashburn is the focus at Bodhi Salon & Spa in March. A major influence and theme in Kristi's art is the many strong women who have inspired her and given her strength, both in real life and pop culture.

"Ladies Night" by Kristi Mashburn

Just take a stroll through downtown Springfield and enjoy fine art, delightful music and good food. Moreover, many downtown restaurants feature art from local artists and provide musical entertainment. For more information, visit to First Friday Art Walk website: <http://ffaw.wordpress.com/>
